GUS MALZAHN

HEAD COACH [2nd SEASON]

Gus Malzahn enters his second season as head coach of Auburn after an incredible first season, leading the Tigers to the BCS National Championship Game, the SEC Championship and a 12-2 record en route to being named National Coach of the Year by nine outlets.

Malzahn, who served as Auburn's offensive coordinator from 2009-11, coached in his second BCS National Championship Game in four years. The Tigers won the title in 2010 behind Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton and came within 13 seconds of defeating No. 1 Florida State for the title in 2013.

Malzahn is 21-5 entering his third season as a head coach after winning back-to-back championships in his first two seasons, the SEC Championship in 2013 and the Sun Belt Conference title with a 9-3 record at Arkansas State in 2012. His 12-2 start at Auburn is the second-best for a new Auburn coach.

At 12-2, Auburn posted the biggest turnaround in the nation (+8) in 2013, the biggest turnaround in SEC history (+7 conference wins) and fell just shy of the biggest improvement in NCAA records (+8.5 games by Hawaii from 1999 to 2000). Malzahn turned a 3-9 season with a total offense ranked 117th out of 124 teams prior to his arrival into a 12-2 SEC Champion in 2013, reaching the BCS National Championship Game.

The Bear Bryant, Bobby Bowden, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, Sporting News, SB Nation, Liberty Mutual and Associated Press National Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2013 Maxwell National Coach of the Year award, Malzahn earned SEC Coach of the Year honors from the league's coaches and the Associated Press.

Just the third coach in SEC history to win an SEC title in his first year at a school, Malzahn joined LSU's Bernie Moore in 1935 and Ole Miss' John Vaught in 1947.

Malzahn has won or played for a conference title in six of his eight seasons as a college coach, including winning a conference crown in three of the last four seasons with Auburn in 2010 and 2013 and Arkansas State in 2012.

He has produced 11 1,000-yard rushers in eight seasons as a college head coach/coordinator, at least one in each season, with Heisman Trophy finalist Tre Mason (1,816) and Nick Marshall (1,068) in 2013.

Malzahn has also had five 1,000-yard receivers and three 3,000-yard passers. He has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season three times: 2013 (Auburn), 2010 (Auburn) and 2006 (Arkansas). His 2007 Tulsa team had three 1,000-yard receivers.

In 2013, Auburn led the nation rushing for 328.3 yards per game, ranked eighth nationally in yards per play on offense at 6.92 yards and was second in the nation to Navy with 229 rushing first downs. Auburn has currently scored 30 points in 10 consecutive games for the first time in school history.

Auburn was just the second team in SEC history to gain more than 7,000 yards total offense in a season in 2013, finishing the year with 7,018 yards; the other was Texas A&M in 2012.

The Tigers ranked 11th in total offense with 501.3 yards per game, 12th in scoring offense with 39.5 points per game, 13th with 334 first downs and ninth in net punting (40.54).

The Tigers set a school record with 48 rushing touchdowns in 2013, set a school record against SEC opponents with 677 yards of total offense vs. No. 5 Missouri in the SEC Championship Game. The Tigers set SEC Championship Game team records for rushing 26 first downs, 74 rushing attempts, 545 rushing yards and seven rushing touchdowns.

Auburn set a school record with 1,955 yards total offense in a three-game span vs. Western Carolina (712), at No. 7 Texas A&M (615) and vs. Florida Atlantic (628).

Tre Mason, a Heisman Trophy finalist and SEC Player of the Year in 2013, ranked third in the nation with 23 touchdowns, was fifth nationally with 1,816 yards rushing, sixth with 10.7 points per game, sixth with 169.57 all-purpose yards per game and eighth with 129.7 rushing yards per game. Mason set the Auburn single-season record with 1,816 rushing yards and 2,374 all-purpose yards, is second with 317 rushing attempts. His 46 rushing attempts and 304 rushing yards vs. No. 5 Missouri set SEC Championship Game records and fell three yards shy of the Auburn record.

Wide receiver Sammie Coates ranks third in the nation with 21.48 yards per reception with 42 catches for 902 yards and seven touchdowns.

Four Auburn players were taken in the 2014 NFL Draft, including two first round picks with offensive tackle Greg Robinson going No. 2 overall to the St. Louis Rams and defensive end Dee Ford going No. 23 to the Kansas City Chiefs. Running back Tre Mason was a third round selection by the Rams while fullback Jay Prosch was a sixth round pick by the Houston Texans.

Malzahn, who won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2010 while helping the Tigers to the BCS National Championship, returned to Auburn after serving as the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012, where he led the program to the Sun Belt Conference title. He was named the program's 26th head football coach on December 4, 2012.

Known for his innovative offensive style, Malzahn has made a profound impact during each of his coaching stops at the collegiate level: Auburn, Arkansas State, Tulsa and Arkansas.

In 2012 at Arkansas State, Malzahn led the Red Wolves to a 9-3 record and 7-1 conference mark, including a seven-game winning streak. The Red Wolves defeated Middle Tennessee 45-0 to claim the Sun Belt Championship and a berth in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

A product of Fort Smith, Ark., Malzahn's ASU offense was in the top 25 nationally in nearly every offensive category entering the bowl game, ranking 17th in total offense (481.8 ypg) and 21st in scoring offense (36.4 ppg) and rushing offense (217.4 ypg). Led by record-setting quarterback Ryan Aplin, who was named Sun Belt Player of the Year, the Red Wolves' offense was 13th nationally in passing efficiency (155.39 rating) and averaged 217.4 yards per game passing.

Malzahn made an immediate impact during his tenure at Auburn, highlighted by a record-setting offense in 2010 when the Tigers finished 14-0 and claimed the school's first national championship since 1957.

The 2010 Auburn offense set nine school records, including points in a season (577), points per game (41.2), total yards (6,989), total offense (499.2), rushing yards (3,987), rushing touchdowns (41) and passing touchdowns (31). Malzahn's record-setting offense in 2010 led the Southeastern Conference and finished in the top 10 nationally in six statistical categories.

He coached Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton during the Tigers' run to the 2011 BCS National Championship. Under Malzahn's guidance, quarterback Newton had one of the best single-season performances at the position in college football history. Newton threw for 2,908 yards and 30 touchdowns, while rushing for 1,586 yards and 20 TDs on the ground en route to becoming the third Heisman winner in school history.

Newton, the No. 1 overall draft pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, also won the school's first-ever Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award, given to the nation's top quarterback. He also claimed the Maxwell Award, presented annually to college football's top player, while also earning Associated Press National Player of the Year and SEC Offensive Player of the Year awards.

Newton became just the third player in FBS history to record 20 rushing and passing touchdowns in a single season and the first player in SEC history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a single season.

He helped lead the Tigers to an 8-5 record in 2011, which included a victory in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Malzahn-led Auburn offense had four players named to the All-SEC Team.

Malzahn's arrival in 2009 and style of offense marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. In a two-year period, the Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to seventh in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 41.2) and from 104th to seventh in total offense. It also took Auburn just six games in 2009 to score more points than it did in all 12 games in 2008.

The striking numbers shouldn't have come as a surprise, as during Malzahn's two seasons at Tulsa, his offenses there were also among the nation's finest, ranking first nationally in total offense in 2007 and 2008.

Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team school records and 12 individual records. The Hurricane also set nine Conference USA team records, while Tulsa quarterback Paul Smith broke an NCAA record by throwing for at least 300 yards in 14 consecutive games.

The 2008 Tulsa offense averaged 569.9 yards per game and was second nationally averaging 47.2 points per games.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Malzahn coached one season at Arkansas, as offensive coordinator, coaching Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and helping the Razorbacks finish fourth nationally in rushing offense at 228.5 yards per game. Two of Malzahn's first three collegiate offenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including the 2008 Tulsa team and 2006 Arkansas squad. During Malzahn's one season at Arkansas in 2006, the Razorbacks finished with a 10-4 record and were SEC West Division Champions.

Malzahn's coaching career began in his home state of Arkansas at the high school level. In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. Malzahn coached two quarterbacks, Josh Floyd and current Auburn offensive coordinator Rhett Lashlee, who set national passing records. Malzahn also tutored 2005 Gatorade, Parade Magazine and Rivals.com National Player of the Year Mitch Mustain at Springdale High School.

In July 2013, he was inducted into the Arkansas High School Sports Hall of Fame.

Malzahn is married to the former Kristi Otwell and they are the parents of two daughters, Kylie and Kenzie.

DAMEYUNE CRAIG

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

Former Auburn standout quarterback Dameyune Craig, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as Auburn's co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Sophomore Sammie Coates ranked third nationally with 21.48 yards/reception, 42 catches for 902 yards and seven touchdowns.

Additionally, Craig was inducted into the Mobile Sports Hall of Fame for his time as a record breaking quarterback at Blount High School. He also elected to the prestigious Tiger Trail in Auburn.

Craig played quarterback at Auburn from 1994-97, where he still holds numerous Auburn passing records, including completions (216) and passing yards (3,227) in a season as well as a single-game record for most net yards gained (445 vs. Army in 1996; 75 rush, 370 pass). Craig, who led Auburn to an 18-7 mark in 25 career starts, was an exceptional student-athlete on and off the field, earning Academic All-SEC honors as a senior in 1997.

Craig spent three seasons prior to returning to Auburn as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 31-10 record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012. FSU won the 2012 ACC championship and defeated Northern Illinois in the Discover Orange Bowl.

Coordinating FSU's recruiting efforts, Craig's efforts helped produced the No. 1 and No. 2 recruiting classes in 2011-12 and landed 2013 Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston. An experienced coach and recruiter with 20 years coaching in the Southeastern and Atlantic Coast Conferences, Charlie Harbison, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as co-defensive coordinator at Auburn, working daily with the Auburn safeties.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Four different safeties recorded interceptions during the season, and Robenson Therezie had four, twice the output of the entire Auburn team a year before.

Harbison and Auburn defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson worked together previously at Clemson (1995-96), Alabama (1998-2000) and Mississippi State (2007).

Prior to Auburn, Harbison spent the 2009-12 seasons in a similar capacity at Clemson. Named a top 25 recruiter by Rivals in 2010, Harbison helped Clemson to back-to-back 10-win seasons, including the 2011 ACC Championship, the program's first in 20 years, and an Orange Bowl slot. Harbison coached cornerback Coty Sensabaugh, who had 14 passes defended in 2011 and was drafted by the Tennessee Titans, and All-America safety DeAndre McDaniel, who led the ACC in interceptions (8) in 2009. That season, Clemson had 21 interceptions, and ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense while winning the ACC Atlantic Division title.

Prior to Clemson, Harbison spent two seasons at Mississippi State (2007-08). The Bulldogs were seventh in the nation in pass defense and 20th in pass efficiency defense in 2007. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for 2008.

Harbison had a pair of coaching stints at Alabama from 1998-2000 and 2003-06. He coached the Crimson Tide wide receivers during his second stint, helping Alabama to a 26-24 overall record, including three bowl berths. During that four-year stretch, receivers D. J. Hall, Antonio Carter and Triandos Luke ranked among the school's all-time top 10 pass-catchers. Following the 2005 season, Harbison was recognized as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

Harbison coached the Alabama defensive backs from 1998-2000, helping gain the 1999 SEC title and appearances in the 1998 Music City and 2000 Orange Bowls. Two of his pupils, Fernando Bryant (1999) and Tony Dixon (2001) were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Between the Alabama assignments, Harbison coached the defensive backfield at LSU in 2001-02, as the Tigers won the 2001 SEC title, finished 18-8 overall and played in the 2002 Sugar and 2003 Cotton Bowls. Corey Webster, who played under Harbison his first two years, finished second on the school's all-time pass interception list.

Harbison served as defensive backs coach at Clemson from 1995-97. The Tigers posted a 22-14 mark during those three years, ending those seasons in the Gator and back-to-back Peach Bowls. One of his pupils was nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins, an All-American who led the ACC in interceptions in 1995.

Harbison coached the secondary at UTEP in 1994 and served twice at his alma mater, Gardner-Webb, coaching wide receivers (1992-93) and defensive backs (1984-85). DR. JAY GOGUE

AUBURN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Jay Gogue's Auburn career started long before he was selected as the university's 18th president. The Waycross, Georgia, native earned Auburn bachelor's and master's degrees in horticulture before earning a doctorate in that field from Michigan State University.

Since returning as president in July 2007, Dr. Gogue has worked to improve the academic strength of Auburn's student body and encouraged research and outreach.

Under his leadership, Auburn is implementing a strategic plan focused on enhancing student success, supporting faculty excellence, strengthening public engagement, and promoting research, scholarship and creative work.

In addition to fulfilling duties as Auburn's president, Dr. Gogue enjoys maintaining a connection with students in the classroom. He teaches a graduate course in higher education administration where students learn university governance, leadership, budgeting and more.

Dr. Gogue was selected in 2013 for the Michigan State University Distinguished Alumni Award. In 2012, he was inducted into the Alabama Academy of Honor, a group of 100 Alabamians "chosen for accomplishment or service greatly benefiting or reflecting great credit on the State." He held a 2012 appointment to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's academic advisory council. Other memberships include Phi Kappa Phi and Golden Key honor societies, Sigma Xi scientific research society, and the National Society of Scabbard and Blade, the honorary military society for all branches of service.

He began his career at the U.S. Department of the Interior, where he worked for 12 years. Prior to returning to Auburn, he held a number of academic and administrative positions, starting at Texas A&M University as an assistant professor teaching and conducting research in plant science. Dr. Gogue later served as vice president for research and vice president/vice provost for agriculture and natural resources at Clemson University and as provost at Utah State University. He was selected as president of New Mexico State University in 2000. In 2003, he was named president of the University of Houston and chancellor of the University of Houston System.

Dr. and Mrs. Susie Gogue first met in the 8th grade. They married while both were Auburn undergraduates. They have three children, one grandchild and two dogs.

JAY JACOBS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Under Athletics Director Jay Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides benefitting Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans. The department has focused on five strategic goals under his leadership: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing the department's fiscal affairs, complying with SEC and NCAA rules and providing a positive gameday experience.

The Auburn Athletics Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors Cup and has claimed 11 national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06. In 2010, the football program claimed the BCS National Championship. In 2013, the football team won its third SEC championship in the past decade and advanced to the BCS National Championship Game for the second time in four years. Under Jacobs' watch, Auburn's athletics programs have captured 23 Southeastern Conference titles.

During Jacobs' tenure, Auburn moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletics programs and their fans, most notably, the construction of the state-of-the-art Auburn Arena and basketball practice facility. The most recent major facilities upgrade was a $16 million multipurpose 100-yard indoor practice facility. A new $6 million Wellness Kitchen was completed in the summer of 2014, giving Auburn one of the finest dining facilities in the country.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics in 2004 after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years. Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He was a member of the Auburn football team, earning two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. He is a member of the Auburn chapter of Phi Kappa Phi honorary.

Jacobs is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan and Jayne. They are also foster parents.

THE AUBURN EAGLES

For more than 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year – including Auburn's home football games. Currently, three flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium since their inaugural untethered free flight in 2000.

“War Eagle”

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

AUBURN ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our Loyalty the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

AUBURN CREED

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.
 I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.
 I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.
 I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports to develop these qualities.
 I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.
 I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.
 I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."
 And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

- George Petrie (1945)

COMPOSED BY BILL WOOD '42 | WORD REVISION 1960

Hear thy student voices swelling,
 Echoes strong and clear,
 Adding laurels to thy fame
 Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
 And bid thee sad adieu;
 Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
 The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
 To work for thy just fame,
 And hold in memory as we do now
 Thy cherished name.

TIGER WALK: AN AUBURN TRADITION

Tiger Walk is an Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Iron Bowl when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk traditionally begins two hours before kickoff for every game at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn, Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

THE "ROLL" CALL

On Saturday, April 20, 2013, the Auburn Family showed that not only is the Auburn Spirit alive and well, but it is soaring to new heights! More than 83,000 fans filled Jordan-Hare Stadium to set an attendance record for A-Day, and later that evening they celebrated into the night with one final roll of the Auburn Oaks at Toomer's Corner. Generations gathered beneath the oaks one final time, sharing stories and creating memories that will last a lifetime.

THE FUTURE OF TOOMER'S CORNER

Keeping alive the tradition of rolling Toomer's Corner is important to the entire Auburn Family. The university has partnered with the City of Auburn to create structures suitable for rolling at the Magnolia Avenue-College Street intersection. Fans will gather there as they always have following big victories or other momentous occasions to celebrate.

Set to be implemented in 2015 is a new Samford Park area at Toomer's Corner that will include the planting of two oak trees. The new design will place trees farther back from the intersection; maintain the existing and historic character of the corner; retain the 1917 gates in their current positions; add more seating and shaded areas; and include the planting of additional trees along a curved walkway through Samford Park. The design was selected after a series of public workshops and an online survey in which more than 10,000 alumni, students, fans and friends provided opinions and ideas.

Auburn's showcase football stadium which seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium (named after a member of Auburn's first football team and eventual professor and dean of the School of Chemistry), although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980; the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973, recognizing Hall of Fame coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan.

The Auburn Family honored three of its all-time greats in a stirring ceremony under sunny skies on the east side of Jordan-Hare Stadium on Saturday, April 14, 2012.

A crowd of thousands roared as former Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan, Bo Jackson and Cam Newton took the stage moments before towering statues immortalizing the Auburn greats from three different eras were unveiled.

Auburn quarterback Pat Sullivan picked up the Tigers' first Heisman Trophy in 1971 after throwing for 20 touchdowns and racking up 2,096 yards of total offense. He led Auburn to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl appearance in his senior season.

How many universities can claim John Heisman, the namesake of the Heisman Trophy, as coach and also have a Heisman winner? Just one: Auburn. And Auburn does not just have one Heisman winner; the Tigers tout three.

BO 1985

Bo Jackson plowed through defenses in 1985 for 6.4 yards per carry, earning Auburn's second Heisman Trophy. The three-sport athlete ran for 1,786 yards and 17 touchdowns while helping the Tigers to an 8-4 record and a Cotton Bowl appearance.

CAM 2010

Cam Newton put together one of the most remarkable college football seasons ever in 2010, throwing for 30 touchdowns and rushing for 20 while leading Auburn to a 14-0 record and the BCS National Championship. Newton tallied 4,327 yards of total offense while completing 66.1% of his passes.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Of the first 53 meetings between Auburn and Alabama, 48 took place in Birmingham. The name "Iron Bowl" comes from Birmingham's historic role in the country's iron industry.

1893

The first Iron Bowl was played on Feb. 22, 1893 in Birmingham with Auburn taking the 32-22 win. The Tigers won the first two meetings and six of the first seven.

1989

The first time Auburn and Alabama met in Auburn was in 1989, and the No. 11 Tigers beat the No. 2 Crimson Tide, 30-20, on Dec. 2, 1989.

December 2, 1972: Trailing 16-3 with six minutes left, underdog Auburn's David Langer blocked two Alabama punts - returning both for touchdowns - to win the game 17-16, handing the Crimson Tide their first loss of the season and ending hopes of a national title.

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 was Bo Jackson's "Bo Over the Top" 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line, which capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

Down 24-0 in the second quarter, the Auburn defense inspired a school-record comeback for a 28-27 win in Tuscaloosa in 2010, en route to a national championship.

KICK SIX: With one second remaining in the game, Auburn's Chris Davis returned a missed field goal 109 yards to give the Tigers a 34-28 win in the 2013 Iron Bowl.

THIS IS AUBURN.

THIS IS A SMART CHOICE.

At Auburn, students have described the appeal of campus as something special for more than 150 years. This strong connection means even more when you consider Auburn's academic record. For 21 consecutive years, Auburn has been in the top 50 of public universities nationwide according to U.S. News & World Report. Auburn is also recognized for value as one of Kiplinger's Personal Finance 100 Best Values in Public Colleges.

Results from a pioneering study known as the Collegiate Learning Assessment conducted at the nation's universities show significant gains in the intellectual skills of Auburn students—more than 100 points on SAT-equivalent tests—from their freshman to senior years. Auburn placed in the top third of institutions participating.

Important to most students are the results from the National Survey of Student Engagement, which reveals that students rank Auburn in the upper tier nationally for providing a supportive learning environment. Another aspect of our exceptional learning environment is Auburn's Learning Communities, designed to group students with similar academic interests together to build support networks for long-term academic development. The Village residence halls were built to facilitate that model.

Auburn strongly believes that international skills are essential and offers faculty-led study tours, educational exchanges, and international internships helping our students gain cross-cultural competencies.

THIS IS A TRUE COLLEGE TOWN.

The city of Auburn receives high rankings for lifestyle and amenities. The Princeton Review surveyed more than 122,000 students to rank the top schools in the country for quality of life, and Auburn ranked number four. The city has also been included on several best places to live and retire by U.S. News and World Report and Forbes.com.

Situated on a 1,843 acre, green campus, the university is located in one of the state's fastest growing cities sited as an ideal place to start a small business. The city is in east-central Alabama approximately 30 miles from the Georgia border; 100 miles southwest of Atlanta; 100 miles south of Birmingham and 50 miles east of Montgomery.

THIS IS MEANINGFUL IMPACT.

Auburn's research aligns with long-term priorities to create real-world solutions for the state, nation and world. Areas of expertise include cyber security; energy and environment; health sciences and food systems; transportation; Gulf research and restoration; and science, technology, engineering and mathematics education.

The impact of Auburn's research and service to the state provides a $4.85 billion economic contribution to the state of Alabama.

THIS IS OUR TRADITION OF SUCCESS.

This is a university that has propelled generations of Tigers to success. Alumni include the CEO of Apple, the founders of Habitat for Humanity and Wikipedia, an Oscar-winning actress, many sports legends, and six astronauts. Our worldwide network of alumni is more than 250,000-strong.

Outcomes show high satisfaction levels with 97 percent of Auburn alumni rating their experience as excellent, and 94 percent saying that if they had to make the choice again, they would choose Auburn.

The Auburn Alumni Association has more than 43,000 members and contributes a significant number of scholarship, professorships and faculty awards each year. There are approximately 100 Auburn clubs around the country dedicated to raising scholarship funds for incoming freshmen.

The SEC Network launching August 2014 will be a national network dedicated to all things SEC. And the excitement and energy of Auburn football will be front and center in that launch. The inaugural Saturday edition of “SEC Nation,” the network’s traveling football pregame show, will originate right outside Jordan-Hare Stadium, and Auburn’s season-opening game with Arkansas will be the network’s premier televised matchup on Saturday, August 30.

The new multi-platform channel, accessible via cable or satellite, is a collaboration between the SEC and ESPN bringing together unparalleled content from one of the most competitive conferences in the country with the highest quality, most innovative production partner in the sports industry.

The SEC Network will offer SEC sports and sports-related studio programming 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with shows such as SEC Nation, the network’s traveling football pregame show that will air every Saturday during the fall, a television simulcast of The Paul Finebaum Show and a daily news and information show.

More than 1,000 live events will also be available in the first full year across the television network and its digital extensions. This will include approximately 45 football games, more than 100 men’s basketball games, 60 women’s basketball games, 75 baseball contests and events from across all 21 SEC-sponsored sports. There will also be unprecedented digital content with full-production quality for all sports across ESPN3 and the WatchESPN mobile application platform.

ESPN Gameday has hosted its show eight times on Auburn's campus, including five times in the last nine years.

- This season all 12 of Auburn's games will be televised

- CBS will televise the SEC Championship Game

- CBS will also continue to air an SEC Game of the Week

- Games aired on the ESPN family of networks will air on either ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU with simulcasts also offered online via ESPN3.com

- Auburn has appeared on ESPN 99 times - the most in the SEC

- The Tigers have played in ESPN Gameday's on-site game 14 times, including 10 times in the last 10 years
